

SAN FRANCISCO
STATE UNIVERSITY

Fall 2018 Graduate Student Conference – Friday, December 14, 2018

San Francisco State University, Humanities Building

9:00	Registration & Morning Reception (HUM 587)
	HUM 211	HUM 579	HUM 580	HUM 587
9:30-10:00	Perspectives on an Intercultural Conversation Exchange Program: Motivations, Benefits, and Opportunities Taylor Harman	Dancing Across Pages: What Words Suggest about First-Year Composition Students and their Audiences Rachel Haislet	Investigating Chinese EFL students' Extensive Reading habits in today's digital reading landscape David Cooper	Morning Reception
10:15-10:45	Today's Learners, Tomorrow's Leaders: Language Camp in the U.S. for Young Thai Students Pitchapha Saekow	Exploring Students' Understanding of ESL Writing Prompts Xiuwen Chen	Adolescent Identity Construction and L2 Acquisition: What's art got to do with it? Cynthia Robertson	Social and affective dimensions of L2 peer pedagogy Kayla Patrick
11:00-11:30	How to Implement Peer Feedback in an Adult ESL Non-credit Class Minjae Jeong	Finding Ways In: Re-imagining Community Engagement Among Adult ESL Learners Amanda Bent	California AB 705 Co-requisite Courses: What Does Theory and Research Tell Us? Michael Coyne
11:45-12:15	Metaphors and Immigration: How Media Imagery Shapes Discourse Taneesh Khera	Using Conceptual Metaphor Theory to Explore What it Means to be a Teacher Michaela Blagg	Weaving Together: A Narrative-based ESP Curriculum for Female Zapotec Artisans Vera Rapscak
12:30-2:00	Graduation Reception and Certificate Ceremony (HUM 587)			